LAST MEETING -

President Pat opened the meeting on time (almost) and welcomed all those present. As there were no visitors Secretary Rayella advised that she had received apologies from the following members: Phyllis Reynolds, Pat & Roy King, Robert Hillsmith, Gerald & Norma O'Sullivan, Chris & Max Brenton, Bob & Joy Ley, Fay Smith, Dianne Thoms, Jeanette & Brian Corlis, Irene Noble and June Curley. We all look forward to seeing you all soon. The proposed Change to Standing Resolution #3 was put to the membership for adoption and was passed unanimously. The roving microphone was again well supported with the theme being embarrassing moments, and caused a great deal of laughter. Congratulations to all those who were game enough to tell of their embarrassments. The Guest Speaker, Taffy Campbell, ex Coldstream Guardsman, told of his time in that Regiment from his recruitment, through his training and eventually being a guardsman at Buckingham Palace. He had us in fits of laughter telling us about incidents that happened during his initial training. He finished by playing a couple of tunes on his banjo. The Lucky Door Prizes were won by Congratulations to you both. To sum up, it was a very happy meeting.

HOUMOR - (GOOD, BAD and CORNY)

A man was sitting on the edge of the bed, watching his wife, who was looking at herself in the mirror. Since her birthday was not far off he asked what she'd like to have for her birthday. 'I'd like to be eight again', she replied, still looking in the mirror. On the morning of her Birthday, he arose early, made her a nice big bowl of Coco Pops, and then took her to Adventure World theme park. What a day! He put her on every ride in the park; the Death Slide, the Wall of Fear, the Screaming Roller Coaster, everything there was. Five hours later they staggered out of the theme park. Her head was reeling and her stomach felt upside down. He then took her to a McDonald's where he ordered her a Happy Meal with extra fries and a chocolate shake. Then it was off to a movie, popcorn, a soda pop, and her favorite candy, M&M's. What a fabulous adventure! Finally she wobbled home with her husband and collapsed into bed exhausted. He leaned over his wife with a big smile and lovingly asked, 'Well dear, what was it like being eight again? Her eyes slowly opened and her expression suddenly changed.

'I meant my dress size, you retard!!!!'

(The moral of the story: Even when a man is listening, he is going to get it wrong).

DID YOU KNOW -

In the old west a .45 cartridge for a six-gun cost 12 cents, so did a glass of whiskey. If a cowhand was low on cash he would often give the bartender a cartridge in exchange for a drink. This became known as a "shot" of whiskey.
