Every day may not be good, but there is something good in every day.

LAST MEETING -

Vice President Jenny opened the meeting on time and welcomed first time visitor Barbara Davis. We hope you enjoyed the meeting Barbara and look forward to seeing you at future meetings. VP Jenny then had the privilege to induct Kaila and Shantha Kasipathy and Josephine Rosetto into membership of the club. We welcome you and trust that you will enjoy being with us. Secretary Rayella advised that apologies had been received from Pat Ryan, Gerald and Norma O'Sullivan, Bob and Joy Ley, Anne MacPhie, Pauline Simpson, Dianne Thoms, Irena McKenzie and Anne Harrison. We all hope that you will be back again soon. The Guest Speaker, Ambre Hammond told of her life, and how she became the youngest person ever to pass the required exams to become a concert pianist. A great story by a great young lady. Let's hope we get to see her again, and are able to accept her offer to come and play for us. The lucky door prizes were won by Roy King and Irene Noble. Congratulations to you both.

THIS MEETING -

The Guest Speaker will be Karen McKewon, Penrith City Mayor. The Roving Microphone topic will be "Driving Stories"

_WED 22 JUN - Meet for lunch at Emu Plains "Cafe at Lewers" at 12 noon. A picturesque venue for lunch, with an interesting and different type menu, and you can take a look around the gallery while you are there.

WED 6 JULY - "Christmas in July" luncheon at the Burning Log, Windsor comedy theatre restaurant. Time: 11am – 2.30pm. Two course meal, bottomless cup of coffee cost $44.00 pp. "Sentimental Journey" variety instrumental entertainment performed by Australia's leading violinist and pianist Vov Dylan, featuring 100 years of popular classics.

NORFOLK ISLAND

HAPPY INN OUTING -

Eighteen members enjoyed a great night of good food and good fellowship at "The Happy Inn".

Several men are in the changing room of a golf club.

A mobile phone on a bench rings and a man engages the hands-free speaker function and begins to talk. Everyone else in the room stops to listen.

MAN: "Hello"

WOMAN: "Hi Babe, it's me. Are you at the club?"

MAN: "Yes."

WOMAN: "I'm at the shops now and found this beautiful leather coat. It's only £2,000; is it OK if I buy it?"

MAN: "Sure, go ahead if you like it that much."

WOMAN: "I also stopped by the Mercedes Dealers and saw the latest models. I saw one I really liked."

MAN: "How much?"

WOMAN: "£70,000."

MAN: "OK, but for that price I want it with all the bells and whistles. Leather seats etc ."

WOMAN: "Great! Oh, and one more thing..."

I was just talking to Margaret and found out that the house I wanted to buy last year is back on the market. They're asking £980,000 for it."

MAN: "Well, then go ahead and make an offer of £900,000. They'll probably take it. If not, we can go the extra eighty-thousand if it's what you really want."

WOMAN: "OK. I'll see you later! I love you so much!"

MAN: "Bye! I love you, too."

The man hangs up. The other men in the locker room are staring at him in astonishment, mouths wide open.

He turns and asks, "Anyone know whose phone this is?"

A high school teacher was arrested today at Sydney's Kingsford-Smith International airport as he attempted to board a flight while in possession of a ruler, a protractor, a compass, a slide-rule and a calculator.

At the press conference, the Attorney General said he believes the man is a member of the notorious extremist Al-Gebra movement. He did not identify the man, who has been charged by the AFP with carrying weapons of maths instruction.

'Al-Gebra is a problem for us', the Attorney General said. "They derive solutions by means and extremes, and sometimes go off on tangents in search of absolute values.' They use secret code names like "X" and "Y" and refer to themselves as "unknowns"; but we have determined that they belong to a common denominator of the axis of medieval with coordinates in every country. As the Greek philosopher Isosceles used to say, "There are three sides to every triangle."
