Every new day is another chance to change your life.

LAST MEETING

President Pat opened the meeting and welcomed first time visitors, Joy Hudson, Evelyn Porter and Debbie Shivers. Ladies, we hope you enjoyed the meeting and look forward to seeing you again next meeting. Secretary Rayella, advised she had received apologies from the following members, Fay Smith, Gerald and Norma O'Sullivan, Kaila and Shantha Kailasapathy, David and Gwen Head, Doreen Ellis, Gail Kelly, Bobbie Kersten and Pat Leitch. We hope that you will be able to return to meetings again soon. A new sound system had been purchased for $1200.00 and is much superior to the old system. The Guest Speaker, Jenny Thomas, from Travel Associates, outlined our proposed visit to Uluru, Alice Springs etc. programmed for next June and it looks like being a great trip. It would be hard to turn down the chance to do the helicopter flight around "the rock". The Lucky Door prizes were won by Barbara Orth and Jean Howard. Congratulations to you both.

THIS MEETING

The Guest Speaker today will be Rob McAlister "Care Alert". Roving Microphone "Personal Accidents" (Comical).

ORMISTON GORGE

STANLEY CHASM

A blonde was on holiday and driving through Darwin. She desperately wanted to take home a pair of genuine crocodile shoes but was very reluctant to pay the high prices the local vendors were asking.

After becoming very frustrated with the "no haggle on prices" attitude of one of the shopkeepers, the blonde shouted, "Well then, maybe I'll just go out and catch my own crocodile, so I can get a pair of shoes for free". The shopkeeper said with a sly, knowing smile, "Little lady, just go and give it a try"! The blonde headed out toward the river, determined to catch a crocodile! Later in the day, as the shopkeeper is driving home, he pulls over to the side of the river bank where he spots the same young blonde woman standing waist deep in the murky water, a shotgun in her hand. Just then, he spots a huge 3 metre croc swimming rapidly toward her. With lightning speed, she takes aim, kills the creature and hauls it onto the slimy banks of the river. Lying nearby were 7 more of the dead creatures, all lying on their backs. The shopkeeper stood on the bank, watching in silent amazement. The blonde struggled and flipped the Croc onto its back. Rolling her eyes heavenward and screaming in great frustration, she shouts out.....
"DAMN! DAMN! DAMN! THIS ONE'S BAREFOOT, TOO!"
