Every day starts with some expectation - but every day ends with some experience.

LAST MEETING -

President Pat opened the meeting and welcomed visitors Pat Higgins, Glen Davis, Wendy Holmes, and Dolina Hart.

We hope you enjoyed the meeting and look forward to seeing you again soon. President Pat then announced that Vice President, Jenny Baynham, had tendered her resignation effective immediately as she was moving to the Nelson Bay area north of Newcastle. Pat thanked Jenny for her efforts, reminding members that she had joined the Committee as Travel Officer the day she was inducted.

We will look forward to Jenny's periodical visits in the years to come.

Secretary Rayella announced that apologies had been received from Irene Noble, Pat Montgomery, John Raymond, Pat McCall, Ron Greenfield, Helen Ward, Livia Parkanyi, June Curley and Shona and Steve Hackett. We all missed you and hope you will be back next meeting.

The Guest Speaker, Rob McAlister, from "Care Alert", explained the working of the system and the benefits of ownership, which could be the saving of your life. The system costs $289.00 with self-install instruction on C.D.

The lucky door prizes were won by Violet Mulcahey and Karin Figg. Congratulations to you both.

At the auction a man's eye caught the most beautiful parrot he had ever seen. Determined to have the bird, he began bidding. Each time he bid, someone out bid him. Higher and higher the bidding went until, finally, he won the bird. As he was paying the auctioneer for the parrot, he commented, "I certainly hope this parrot can talk. After what I'm paying for him, I would hate to find out that he can't." "Talk? Don't you worry sir, he can talk," replied the auctioneer. "Who do you think kept bidding against you?"
