LAST MEETING -

 President Pat opened the meeting on time and welcomed our 12th Birthday Rotary Guests, Garry and Louise Rumble. Garry formed Glenmore Park Probus Club in 2005, and has kept a keen interest in the Club and its activities. Other guests were Campbell and Yvonne Ashelford, Dianne Danby, Val Fenwick and Dianne Norgate. It was great to see you all. We hope you enjoyed the meeting and look forward to seeing you again next month.

Secretary Rayella advised that apologies had been received from Gail Kelly, Lorraine Batterham, Rob Hillsmith, Kaila and Shantha Kailasapathy, Alayne Humphries, Pat Montgomery, Pauline Simpson, Anne Harrison and Gwen Head. We hope you are back with us next meeting. A second morning tea was held and Garry Rumble cut the huge birthday cake (See photo) and congratulated the members on making it a great club. The guest speaker from "Mercy Ships" was unable to attend but sent a DVD on the work the mercy ships carry out. It was a very confronting documentary showing the work carried out by the hospital ship. President Pat asked the members if they would consent to making a $50.00 donation from the club's funds. The motion was carried unanimously.

PAST MEMORIES - LOFTUS TRAM MUSEUM (7 - 12 -2011).

How men and women record things in their diaries.

Wife's Diary:

Tonight, I thought my husband was acting weird.

We had made plans to meet at a nice restaurant for dinner. I was shopping with my friends all day long, so I thought he was upset at the fact that I was a bit late, but he made no comment on it. Conversation wasn't flowing, so I suggested that we go somewhere quiet so we could talk.

He agreed, but he didn't say much. I asked him what was wrong; He said, nothing.' I asked him if it was my fault that he was upset. He said he wasn't upset, that it had nothing to do with me, and not to worry about it. On the way home, I told him that I loved him.

He smiled slightly, and kept driving. I can't explain his behaviour.

I don't know why he didn't say, 'I love you, too.' When we got home, I felt as if I had lost him completely, as if he wanted nothing to do with me anymore. He just sat there quietly, and watched TV. He continued to seem distant and absent. Finally, with silence all around us, I decided to go to bed. About 15 minutes later, he came to bed.

But I still felt that he was distracted, and his thoughts were somewhere else. He fell asleep;

I cried. I don't know what to do. I'm almost sure that his thoughts are with someone else. My life is a disaster.

Husband's Diary:

A two-foot putt .. who the hell misses a two-foot putt?
